Short Video from Kuaishou

State 1: Content Extraction

The video shows two men in camouflage uniforms arriving at the home of a minor dressed in black and, after using violence against him, escorting him to the car and taking him away, suspected to be going to a militarized school for minors.

State 3: Interim Check

The content of this video may be suspected of child abuse, and user comments on the video need to be introduced for additional judgment.

State 5: Final Summary

In summary, there is a bottom line problem with this video, which is labeled "Child Abuse".

State 2: Video Content Analysis

The headline "Disobedient and bored with school #Complete closed militarized management school #Military management school #Military management school #Hebei rebellious children school #Hebei special training school for rebellious children" implies that the video content may be about a militarized management school, and that there may be potential for inappropriate behavior. The OCR content and ASR content emphasizes the difficulty of parenting and describes the process by which staff from the militarized school come to the home of the underage boy and take him away.

State 4: User Feedback Analysis

Some of the comments mentioned words such as "Dude, you should kick him in the crotch for his own life" and "Retarded [sweat] [sweat] [sweat], which are offensive and insulting, and may cause viewers to be offended.

